

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. BY forcing stations to show this biased program, they are trying to influence the election and not serving the public interest. I ask the FCC to do everything possible to stop Sinclair Broadcasting from forcing stations to air this program.

Robin Luberoff